No general meeting discussion was scheduled today and in its place the committee offered the first of its monthly learning seminars for committee and all NY Chapter AIA members.

1. Tod Wittenhouse and Matt Kmetz gave a presentation entitled: "Protecting Government, Commercial and Institutional Buildings Through Architectural Design". Each attendee received one CEU credit.
2. The Committee meets the second Friday of each month, and will continue to offer free credits for upcoming events:

Sep 12 th	The US Mission to the UN, presented by Tom Levering, Gwathmey Siegel Associates
Oct 10 th	Building Review Process, presented by the Art Commission of the City of New York
Nov 14 th	Security creates Public Plazas/Courthouse Squares, presented by Frank Greene
Dec 12 th	"Art in Public Space – Images of Justice", presented by Salvador Dali, (still just checking)
3. The "Security in the Civic Realm" conference rescheduled for the fall will be discussed at our September 12th meeting following the seminar listed above.
